BERLE FARM

At Berle Farm, the food is grown with care and an expressed love for the land from which it comes. The model of land nourishing people and people nourishing land is brilliant and our goal. For us gift boxes are a way to extend the feeling that sustainability is quality. These are great gifts that support organic farming and embrace the simplicities of life.

Create Your Own Gift Boxes

Boxes are made beautiful, with care and great food. The ingredients are delicious and festive! The gift includes a fresh sprig of thyme, box top farm photograph, biodegradable packaging and a postcard message. Box measurements are 12 x 10 ¾ x 4 ½. All of our cheeses are certified organic and all our products come from certified organic fields.

List of Foods

BerleBerg: The signature cheese of the farm! The cheese has a creamy tang that starts with grassy undertones and finishes with a sharp, nutty bouquet. The flavor becomes buttery when heated. Certified organic.

HayMaker: The Berle Farm cheese with experience! HayMaker is robust, earthy and balanced with a smooth finish. Aged for two years, resulting in a dryer texture excellent for grating and serving in wedges. Certified organic.

Soft-Ripened rounds: A generous four inch round of creamy white mold ripened deliciousness.

Cornmeal: Freshly ground for the holiday season from hand selected ears of red and yellow open pollinated, saved seed corn grown on farm. We shell with a hand crank and grind with a flat belt PTO driven hammer mill. Preparing the cornmeal is a Berle Farm tradition and our tribute to slow food. Truly exceptional cornmeal.

Maple Syrup: Precious, golden nectar from the trees. Ours is gathered in buckets, wood-fired and packed in festive glass.

Shallots: Sweet, spicy, and bright red for the holiday kitchen.

Honey: Raw honey from bees residing at Berle Farm.

Garlic: Praise to the allium family. Very good garlic!

Popcorn: Popcorn on the cob is back! 3 ears make a nice decoration and then can be popped on the stove or in the microwave. Black Dakota and White Pennsylvania Dutch specialty popcorn.

Fresh Thyme: Fresh Thyme is a celebration of clean living and good health. Harvested in December for the long pre-solstice nights. Cook with it or steep some tea!
